

CA ANZ Asia Regional Webinar

COVID-19 has changed the paradigm for all businesses.

Two years on, as the global economy gradually finds its way out of the pandemic to an endemic state and despite the threat of new variants, localized case spikes and different levels of vaccination rates globally, there is light at the end of the tunnel.

Join our Asian regional panel to discuss what this means for businesses across Asia as we “take the pulse” of the current business landscape, examine the challenges ahead and the opportunities to transform business, develop new areas of growth and strengthen connections to the global economy.

Please contact CA ANZ Hong Kong Office at ‘hongkong@charteredaccountantsanz.com’ for any inquiries.
